Join Eagle Dining for Holiday Dinner Dec. 2

All of Eagle Nation is invited to join Eagle Dining Services for the annual Holiday Dinner Wednesday, Dec. 2 from 5–9 p.m. at Dining Commons.

The Holiday Dinner gives students the comforts of home by serving a variety of seasonal dishes such as shrimp cocktail, prime rib, lobster mac n' cheese and many other delectable options. It also serves as a gathering place for the entire Eagle community to celebrate the season as a family.

The Holiday Dinner is open to all students, faculty, staff and community members. Eagle Dining Plan members can access the event under their plan. The cost to Eagle Express card holders is $12, and for those paying with credit, debit or cash, the cost is $15.

Lighting of Sweetheart Circle Dec. 3

Get in the holiday spirit Thursday as the University Programming Board hosts the annual Lighting of Sweetheart Circle at 5 p.m. Interim President Jean E. Bartels, Ph.D., RN, will officially “flip the switch” to commemorate the event. Other festivities will include holiday-themed crafts, pictures with Santa and Mrs. Claus, a snow machine, music, refreshments and more. The event is free and open to the public.
